Dear Friends,

The OLLI office team has now been working from home for a month! Who could have predicted we would all be quarantined together when we were in class last fall? However, we are making the best of it and are still working hard to bring you interesting and fun courses that we can enjoy from home. We are also looking forward to the fall semester and are already contacting instructors about teaching for us when we meet again.

This week we are watching Treasure Island with discussion taking place next Tuesday, April 21 at 1 pm. Hope you will join us! Also included in this newsletter are links to fun and educational items as well as some book and movie recommendations from you fellow OLLI members. Please have a read and contact the OLLI office with any questions. Tell us what you like and also how we can make it better.

We hope you’re doing well and staying healthy and engaged. We miss you!

Robert Louis Stevenson’s story of murder, money and mutiny brought to life in this thrilling new stage adaptation

It’s a dark, stormy night. The stars are out. Jim, the inn-keeper’s granddaughter, opens the door to a terrifying stranger. At the old sailor’s feet sits a huge sea-chest, full of secrets. Jim invites him in – the dangerous voyage begins.

Filmed live on-stage by National Theatre Live, see Olivier Award-winner Patsy Ferran (Summer and Smoke) play Jim and Arthur Darvill (Doctor Who, Broadchurch) play Long John Silver in this rip-roaring adventure for the whole family. This filmed performance is recommended for ages 10+. It contains some flashing lights and staged fight scenes. Available now through until April 23. Book Recommendations

OLLI member, Angela Box of Bartlesville recommends two books: "Wesley the Owl" and "The Elephant Whisperer." Both non-fiction books "would be especially enticing to animal lovers."

For something a little different, Tulsa OLLI member, Katherine Tooley highly recommends "cozy mysteries" written by Kate Carlisle.

Happy reading!

Movie Recommendations

OLLI director Robbin Davis has been watching a lot of old movies on TCM. Recent favorites include "Smarty" and the Fred and Ginger musical, "Shall We Dance?"

She also likes a good thriller and has been enjoying the Amazon Prime series, "Jack Ryan."
