

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN DISTRICT LEVEL LEADERSHIP

COLLEGE OF
EDUCATION AND HUMAN SCIENCES

OVERVIEW

The Graduate Certificate in District Level Leadership is designed to be a short-term, 12-credit hour, embedded graduate certificate for professionals who already hold a minimum of a master's degree and seek to acquire the necessary skill set for central office administration and/or Oklahoma superintendent licensure. The program is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation. Additionally, this program provides the partial fulfillment of requirements for state certification in the preparation of district level leaders (Oklahoma Statutes, 70-6-189(C)) that focuses on district level educational leadership competencies and dispositions.

Courses are delivered in hybrid or online formats. Students have access to face-to-face, synchronous courses through internet-delivery systems such as GoToTraining, Zoom, Skype for Business and interact with course materials and peers through OSU's learning management system, Canvas. The certificate program is designed for accessibility to learners regardless of their physical location and uses technology to create opportunities for peer-to-peer collaboration and community building, while breaking down physical boundaries that may exist due to geographical locations and schedules.
