Admissions Criteria

Opportunity Orange Scholars is an individualized two-year, residential, non-degree certificate program at Oklahoma State University for students with a primary or secondary diagnosis of intellectual disability. We accept students between the ages of 18 and 26. Transfer credits from other colleges or postsecondary programs do not apply.

Applicants must meet all of the following requirements to apply for Opportunity Orange Scholars:

- Display a desire to continue educational, employment, and campus life experiences through postsecondary education in the Opportunity Orange Scholars Program at Oklahoma State University.
- Desire to learn and participate in inclusive classroom and work settings.
- Express interest in living and working as independently as possible in their community after completing the program with support from families or caregivers.
- Have a primary or secondary diagnosis of intellectual disability.
- Be between 18 and 26 years of age by the first day of the Fall semester of admission.
- Demonstrate basic safety and social skills.*
- Have sufficient emotional and independent living skills necessary to participate in coursework and campus life.*
• Be independent in all daily hygiene activities and be able to self-manage and administer all medications on their own.*
• Follow a schedule and navigate campus with minimal support.*
• Communicate wants, desires, and needs.

*IMPORTANT NOTE: Opportunity Orange Scholars does not provide 24/7 supervision for students. Parents and Applicants must trust scholars can make safe decisions without 24/7 supervision and structured programming on evenings and weekends. The safety of our students drives every decision made by our staff. A student may be dismissed from the program if, in the professional opinion of our staff, the student is displaying behavior that could endanger themselves or someone else.

If you do NOT meet the above criteria AND if you have a high school diploma with at least a 3.0 GPA and/or an ACT score of 21 or better, admission as a degree-seeking student at Oklahoma State University may be a better option for you.

Application Process

How to Apply

• Applicants must apply for admission through the Opportunity Orange Scholars website. Students do not complete a traditional OSU admissions application (use the “2022 OPPORTUNITY ORANGE APPLICATION”)
• Completed application and all requested materials must be submitted by March 1st to be considered for Fall 2022 admission.
• Incomplete application packets will not be considered.
• Applicants will receive an automated email confirmation of receipt of their application. Please do not contact Opportunity Orange Scholars staff regarding the status of your application.
Current application materials are only valid for the current application period (2022-2023). Applicants who are not accepted for the current academic period will be required to submit a new application each year should they decide to reapply in the future.

Application Checklist

- Online Opportunity Orange Scholars Student Application - DUE MARCH 1, 2022
- Non-refundable $40 application fee
- Record and submit ONE application videos*

  *Applicants will be asked to record and submit ONE (1) VIDEO of yourself answering a few questions. There are TWO (2) question prompts for you to answer in that video. Your video should be NO MORE THAN 6 MINUTES TOTAL in length (approximately, 3 MINUTES for each prompt).

In your video, please answer the following questions:

- 1. Prompt #1 -- Why are you interested in applying for Opportunity Orange Scholars, and what excites you most about being a college student at OSU?
- 2. Prompt #2 -- If selected to be a student in Opportunity Orange Scholars, you will live on campus away from home. What do you think would be the best part about living away from home and your family if you attended OSU, and what do you think would be the hardest?

- Provided contact information for THREE recommendations
  - 1. Academic recommendation - someone who can speak to your educational and social experiences in school (for example: a teacher, school counselor, guidance counselor, principal, etc.)
  - 2. Social/character recommendation - someone who can speak to your character, social skills, and ability to manage behaviors (e.g., coach, clergy, coworker, etc.).
3. Employment/Volunteer recommendation - someone who can speak to your experiences as an employee at work and during volunteer or community service activities.

NOTE: Ideally, applicants would have at least one person who can speak to their experiences as an employee, volunteer, or during a service role in their community. However, if applicants do NOT have someone who can speak to these experiences, they may submit TWO (2) ACADEMIC RECOMMENDATION FORMS and ONE (1) SOCIAL CHARACTER RECOMMENDATION FORM.

A recommendation form will be sent to each reference via email. Applications are not considered complete until we have received all three online recommendation forms. It is YOUR responsibility to ensure your references have received and submitted their forms before the due date.

- High-school transcript or documentation of prior schooling
- Most recent Individualized Education Plan (IEP)
- Psychoeducational Evaluation (completed within the last 3 years)
- Letter(s) of Guardianship (for example: court order for appointment guardian)

Application Timeline - What to Expect

- All applications (including supporting documents and recommendation forms) are due March 1st.
- Review of complete applications begins March 2nd.
- Select candidates are invited to an interview with the Opportunity Orange Scholars admissions committee in mid-March. Pending university protocol, interviews may occur via an online platform.
- Students will be notified by May 1st about admission to the program.
  - Four to six students will be admitted to begin study in the Fall 2022 semester.
Acceptance and admission into Opportunity Orange Scholars is selective. Meeting basic admission criteria does not guarantee acceptance into the program.

- Accepted Scholars will be required to attend orientation in July 2022 and online prep-sessions in June-August. Detailed Complete orientation information will be provided upon acceptance.

- First day of fall semester: August 22th

BEGIN APPLICATION

Please complete your application by following these steps:

STUDENT QUESTIONNAIRE

This section will help us learn more about you and your goals. The section is broken down into two parts: (1) video responses and (2) short answer questions.
VIDEO ESSAY

Instructions

You will be asked to record and submit ONE (1) VIDEO of yourself answering a few questions. There are TWO (2) question prompts for you to answer in that video.

Your video should be NO MORE THAN 6 MINUTES TOTAL in length (approximately, 3 MINUTES for each prompt).

To record your videos, first give your browser permission to access your camera, if prompted. Complete the test recording to make sure that your video camera is working. After completing the test, you will be prompted to record your actual video.

73. VIDEO PROMPTS

In your video, please answer the following questions:

1. Prompt #1: Why are you interested in applying for Opportunity Orange Scholars, and what excites you most about being a college student at OSU?

2. Prompt #2: If selected to be a student in Opportunity Orange Scholars, you will live on campus away from home. What do you think would be the best part about living away from home and your family if you attended OSU, and what do you think would be the hardest?
SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

This section includes THREE (3) questions to help us learn more about you and your goals.

You should answer each essay question on your own, using your own skills and words. Decisions about admission to the OOS program are not based on grammar and spelling.

It is important that YOU complete your own application. It may be helpful to type your responses in a Word document first, and then copy/paste the text into the application.

Please answer each of the following questions in FIFTY (50) words or less.

74.   Question 1: How did you learn about Opportunity Orange Scholars? (50 words max)

75.   Question 2: What would be a job you would like to have one day and how do you think Opportunity Orange Scholars can help prepare you for that? (50 words max)

76.   Question 3: If you were selected to participate in Opportunity Orange Scholars, what would be TWO (2) goals that you would like to work on while in the program? (50 words max)
RECOMMENDATION FORMS

You must submit the contact information for THREE (3) references. These must include: (1) academic recommendation, (1) character recommendation, and (1) employment recommendation.*

*NOTE: Ideally, all applicants would have at least one person who can speak to their experiences as an employee, volunteer, or during a service role in their community. However, if you do NOT have someone who can speak to these experiences, you may submit TWO (2) ACADEMIC RECOMMENDATION FORMS and ONE (1) SOCIAL CHARACTER RECOMMENDATION FORM.

Once you have provided the contact information for each of your references, those individuals will be sent online recommendation forms by email. Recommendation forms should be completed by non-family members who have known you for at least two years.

 Your application will NOT be considered complete until we have received all three online recommendation forms from your references. It is YOUR responsibility to ensure your references receive and submit their forms before the due date.

Types of Recommendations:

☐ Academic Recommendation - someone who can tell us about your educational and social experiences in school (for example: a teacher, school counselor, guidance counselor, principal, etc.)

☐ Social/Character Recommendation - someone who can tell us about your character, social skills, and ability to manage behaviors (e.g., pastor, coach, coworker, etc.).
☐ Employment/Volunteer Recommendation - someone who can tell us about your experiences as an employee at work and during volunteer or community service activities.
