

School of Educational Foundations, Leadership and Aviation (SEFLA) Graduate Student Travel Grant Procedures

The SEFLA Graduate Student Travel Grant is offered as a means of reimbursement for SEFLA Graduate Students for costs associated with presentation of research at a State/Regional, National, or International conference. Applicants who are denied funding in the fall semester due to funding constraints will receive first priority in the following spring/summer semesters.

Students can receive funding from both the College and SEFLA as long as they meet the requirements outlined below. Note: The requirements for each funding source are different.
