P.E.T.E. PROJECT

OVERVIEW

The P.E.T.E. Project is a living-learning community of 60 new students with a declared major in the College of Education and Human Sciences. As a resident of the P.E.T.E. Project, you will live with Ambassador Peer Mentors, who provide advice on new college experiences and serve as community leaders to support your success. P.E.T.E. Project strives to provide experiences that PREPARE, ENGAGE, TRANSFORM and EMPOWER you during your first year at Oklahoma State University.

PURPOSE

- PREPARES you for lifelong learning through educational programming and academic coaching
- ENGAGES you through social and community service activities across campus and throughout Stillwater
- TRANSFORMS your leadership potential through opportunities and personal development training
- EMPOWERS you to live your purpose through early career development initiatives

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Applications open October 1. Priority deadline is Feb. 1.
- Apply through the OSU undergraduate admissions application portal under the housing tab.
- Participation is limited to 60 students each academic year.
- Selection to the program begins in February and runs through May, or until space is filled.
- $85 program fee required for selected participants.

WHY LIVE AND LEARN THROUGH THE P.E.T.E. PROJECT?

- Develop friendships and study partners with students who are studying in the same college and/or your major.
- Make connections and discover diverse ways to get involved on campus.
- Increase your likelihood of earning a higher average GPA than other freshmen on campus (typical outcome).
- Get to know and build supportive relationships with College of Education and Human Sciences faculty and staff outside the classroom.
- Live on the third floor of one of OSU's newest residence halls, West University Commons.
