COE Speaker Series

Presents

Dr. William E. Doll, Jr.

Teaching Good:
An Alternative to Good Teaching

February 6th, 2006, 6:30-7:30pm
Willard Lecture Hall, 010

Reception Following
7:30-8:30pm, Willard Living Room

Sponsored by
The Curriculum Studies Program and the School of Teaching and Curriculum Leadership

About the Speaker: An internationally renowned scholar, William E. Doll, Jr. teaches curriculum theory at Louisiana State University where he serves as Vira Franklin and J. R. Eagles Endowed Professor. A recipient of an AERA lifetime Achievement Award, he has worked in various areas, including philosophy of education, teacher education, mathematics education, and curriculum studies. He has authored influential scholarly books and articles.