Students in the Dual Doctorate Degree Program in High Education and Pedagogy will take coursework from both OSU and UPAEP and upon completion will have a doctoral degree awarded by each institution.

The way it works:

- 1 year at UPAEP
- 1 year at OSU
- 9 months online
- 1.3 years dissertation work (OSU-UPAEP)
 - If the student wants a Ph.D. from OSU instead of the Ed.D, they can transfer their credits and take 8 extra credits
 - 1 additional 3 credit hour course
 - 5 additional credits of dissertation at OSU

Candidates for a dual degree program must apply to and be accepted by each program separately. Contact Martha Cabanas at Martha.cabanas@upaep.mx to request the "Guide for Admission to OSU UPAEP."

Students in this program pay the resident rate at each institution.
