AVED Graduate Courses
“Master of Science”
Summer 2018

The following AVED graduate courses (on-line via D2L) will be taught during the traditional 8-week summer term, June 11 – August 3, 2018.

- AVED 5453: Advanced Aviation Security (Dr. Jon Loffi)
- AVED 5883: Aviation Economics (Dr. Timm Bliss)
- AVED 5963: Airport Operations (Dr. Chad Depperschmidt)

The following AVED graduate “research” courses (on-line via D2L) will also be taught during the traditional 8-week summer term, June 11 – August 3, 2018.

- AVED 5053: Guided Readings in Research (AVED Faculty)
- AVED 5153: Capstone in Aerospace Research (AVED Faculty)

All AVED Master’s students who are ready to begin their Creative Component (research component), please contact your AVED faculty advisor for enrollment. Remember, AVED 5053 must be taken before AVED 5153 because it is the preparatory course for the Creative Component.
