International Perspectives in Literacy Education

Belize

Travel days: March 11-19, 2017

EDUC 3080.616 & CIED 6060.606
3-credit course

Faculty: Dr. Jenn Sanders

Description: The main goals of this course are to collaborate and co-teach with Belizean teachers, to provide professional development in literacy instruction for all participants, and to learn about the Belizean education system and culture from the teachers and students with whom we interact.

Class Meetings
Jan. 20, Feb. 3, Feb. 17, Mar. 3, Apr. 7
5:30pm - 8:15pm

Who can participate?
Early childhood, elementary, secondary, and special education majors, graduate students in education programs with K-12 classroom teaching experience, reading/literacy students, curriculum studies students, TESOL majors, or those with related expertise. Undergraduate and graduate students are welcome. Doctoral students can also collaboratively design a research study related to this engagement.

Estimated Cost: $2,900*
Includes: tuition, airfare, hotel, ground transporation, water, most meals, excursion fees

*Final cost will be determined closer to the course date, once all bookings have been made.

For more info, contact: Dr. Jenn Sanders, jenn.sanders10@okstate.edu or Cindy Cario, cindy.cario@okstate.edu