DIVERSITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE WORKSHOP

Carlos Andrés Gómez will guide the group through an exploration of social identity through an intersectional lens, examining how race, gender, sexuality, class and other identities frame and impact our lives. The workshop will be centered on courageous dialogue and personal narrative, structuring the session around interactive exchange and thoughtful discourse as a means of breaking down walls and building understanding across lines of difference.

THURSDAY, APRIL 5
EDMON LOW LIBRARY
EVENT ROOM | 109H
4:00 PM

OPEN TO STUDENTS, FACULTY & STAFF