Personal and Community Safety
Central Center, 1028 E. 6th
Tuesdays, 10 - Noon June 6, 13, 20
Instructors: Lori Fullbright, Jennifer Rush, & Cindy Loftin

Protecting yourself and your property comes down to some basic knowledge and techniques. During the three weeks of this course, you'll hear from experts on topics such as personal safety, scams, crime trends, and the simplest means of protecting your own and your neighbors’ property through the Alert Neighbors program. Join Lori Fullbright, news anchor and crime reporter for Channel 6, Jennifer Rush, Executive Director of Tulsa Crime Stoppers, and Cindy Loftin, Program Coordinator for LIFE Senior Services Medicare and Tax Assistance Programs.

U.S. Border Management & Trade Policy
Central Center, 1028 E. 6th
Tuesdays, 10 - Noon June 6, 13, 20
Instructor: Anthony Cambas

Learn about the multifaceted role that U.S. Customs plays in securing our borders, regulating trade, combating terrorism, securing supply chains, preventing trafficking and smuggling, protecting intellectual property rights, collecting duties and fees, promoting jobs and economic development, and negotiating, implementing and enforcing trade policy. We will also discuss the differences and similarities between CBP and Customs Administrations globally and the increasing harmonization of trade rules and cooperation between border management officials around the world. Anthony Cambas is the Director of the Wes Watkins Center for International Trade and Development and the International Trade Center – Small Business Development Center at OSU. He is a former U.S. Customs official and Licensed Customs Broker with more than 25 years’ experience in international trade and development in the public and private sectors and has been a senior advisor on Customs Reform and Modernization projects in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.
If you were one of the lucky ones to enroll in the spring semester Mahjong for Beginners, your club is meeting again! The pre-requisite for this course is that you must have finished that course so you can move on to develop your Mahjong playing skills. This time around, we’ll focus on scoring and strategy. Carol Bebak has played Mahjong for the past 17 years and uses her educational background to teach others to play the game. Carol has been a teacher, reading specialist, trainer, and the Adult Development Director for Magic Empire Council of Girl Scouts. She enjoys gardening, cooking, and playing Mahjong with friends and family. *Limited to students who were in Spring 2017 Mahjong Class.

Great Decisions
Central Center, 1028 E. 6th
Tuesdays, 1 - 3 pm
June 6, 13, 20
Moderator: Jan Figart

Join moderator, Jan Figart, as she presents Great Decisions 2017. Trade and Politics: The U.S. political mood toward trade has gone sour with a popular narrative: trade means that China wins at America’s expense. But do the numbers support that conclusion? The metrics, Gross Domestic Product and balance of trade, have not kept up with the realities of modern manufacturing. Obtaining an accurate picture of U.S. economic stature requires a critique of those numbers so we can develop appropriate policy solutions. Topic Expert: Marten Brienen. Prospect for Afghanistan and Pakistan: Major internal conflict has plagued Afghanistan for four decades, and the U.S. has conducted military operations in the country since 9/11. Today, war with the Taliban persists, and tensions between the U.S. and Pakistan have gradually deteriorated. As his time in office drew to a close, President Obama limited further withdrawal of U.S. troops from Afghanistan. Will the incoming administration maintain the status quo, completely reverse the Obama administration drawdown, or withdraw completely? Topic Expert: TBA. USSR Redux? Is Putin Trying to Resurrect Moscow’s Empire? Vladimir Putin will become less enigmatic as we examine his background, personality, and policies. We conclude with an analysis of alleged Russian interference in U.S. and European elections; conflicting perceptions of NATO and the crisis in the Ukraine; and prospects for U.S.-Russian relations under President Donald Trump. Join Robert Donaldson as he attempts to demystify the government political climate, culture, economy and geography of the country.
The sequel to Wolf Hall, Hilary Mantel's 2009 Man Booker Prize winner and New York Times bestseller, Bring Up the Bodies (Wolf Hall, Book 2) delves into the heart of Tudor history with the downfall of Anne Boleyn. Combining historical fact and novelistic elements of style, character, and suspense to bring us closer to the events and people of the English Reformation - or perhaps to show how close we already are. Enrollees are encouraged to read (or begin reading) Bring Up the Bodies prior to the first class so we can jump right in the storyline. The book is available from online retailers and many of the Tulsa Libraries. Diane Burton, who taught Wolf Hall in the Spring semester, earned her PhD from the University of Tulsa. She taught literature and writing for many years at TU, with shorter stints at OSU - Tulsa and OU - Tulsa. Now retired, she is associate editor of Nimrod International Journal.

Not up for a walking tour of Tulsa? OLLI’s got you covered with this arm-chair tour of Tulsa’s hottest attractions. Director Jeff Moore details of the planning process that will result in interactive exhibits for the new Oklahoma Museum of Popular Culture. The Linnaeus Teaching Garden is a .55-acre demonstration garden located in Woodward Park. Deb Broome, volunteer and avid gardener, brings her extensive knowledge of the teaching garden to our classroom. Ken Busby, Executive Director & CEO of The Route 66 Experience will update members on the planned 50,000 sq. ft. facility. Designed to promote cultural tourism and economic development for Tulsa and throughout Oklahoma, it will house a hands-on, interactive, interpretive center plus a diner, restaurant, gift shop and special event space. Learn about the ecosystems and plant life on display at the Tulsa Botanic Garden with Lori Hutson, Communications and Programs Director for this 170-acre garden. She'll also share plans for development of 60 additional acres of gardens. Tulsa Zoo’s Education Manager, Katie Girvin, will initiate a wild discussion including demonstrations with reptiles, birds, and small mammals to increase your appreciation of wildlife and conservation.
Strap on your walking shoes and get set for three very special excursions! We’ll hit the pavement to explore eight city blocks above and below ground on the Tulsa Tunnels tour, with a special focus on art, architecture, and history. Our tour guide is Kelly Gibson, with Tours of Tulsa. Next up, a librarian-lead tour of the Central Library where you’ll see the many changes and new services incorporated into the modernization of this great community resource. Join Johanna Burton at the beautifully renovated Central Library. And finally, enter stage right to take a look at the theaters of the Performing Arts Center with John E. Scott, Director of the PAC.

Participants should be comfortable walking and standing for extended lengths of time. Enrollees will receive parking and meeting locations prior to class.

*Class is limited to 20 enrollments. Mandatory $10 additional fee.

Screwball Comedies
Circle Cinema, 10 S. Lewis
Wednesdays, 1 - 3 pm June 7, 14, 21
Instructor: Charlie Taraboletti

Screwball comedies - the wacky, witty, fast-talking romances that flourished in the 1930s - promised audiences an escape from the daily cares of the Depression era. And, boy, did they deliver! Playing off the theme that opposites attract, the plot often pits a madcap woman against a serious man who finds himself placed in a ridiculous situation that quickly gets out of hand. Tight, well-made plots and funny dialog delivered at break-neck speed are the hallmarks of these Hollywood favorites.

Join Charlie Taraboletti, seasoned film buff and News Director and Operations Manager for KWON-KYFM-KRIG-KPGM Radio (Bartlesville), for some riotous fun.

*Limited course enrollment.
The Market Basket: Savory Summer Fare from Chef Jeff
Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma, 1304 N Kenosha Ave.
Thursdays, 10 - Noon
June 8, 15, 22
Instructor: Jeff Marlow

From the farmer to the market to your table, Chef Jeff has remarkable flavors ready for you this summer. First, we’ll have a thrilling adventure into Asian dishes rich in color, aromatics, and exotic flavors which you’ll learn to integrate into your own cooking. In the following week, you’ll ease into the lazy days ahead by sampling summertime fun food. Then it’s time to switch it up a bit when we’ll be cooking breakfast!

Jeffrey Marlow has been a professional chef for 17 years, studying culinary arts and training under well-known chefs at various locations in Oklahoma. He believes in using his talent to make a difference in the world and served on the board of the Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma for 6 years before becoming the Executive Chef and Manager of Culinary Services in August 2013. Changing the world and cooking are his passions.
